ALMA MATER

Mid the hills of Alabama
 Stands our high school dear.
 'Tis the fount of all our knowledge
 Hope of future years.

Mellow Valley High,
 Dear old school,
 Long may you ever be
 A star to hitch our wagons to
 So we sing praise to thee .

We salute thee, Alma Mater,
 May you ever stand
 For the things we love and cherish
 In our happy land.

"Try to do more and better than you think you can. Don't bother just to be better than your contemporaries but try to be better than yourself. More times than not, you will be pleasantly surprised."

Leonard D. Brooks, Superintendent
Clay County Schools

I congratulate the Staff and all others who made any contribution to the production of this fine Annual. When reviewed in future years it will bring fond memories to each student and Faculty Member of the 1968-69 school year at Mellow Valley. I, too, am sure your love for and loyalty to your Alma Mater will be strengthened on each occasion you thumb through its pages. Best wishes to the Seniors for real success as you take your place in Society, and to the undergraduates may your remaining years at Mellow Valley be both enjoyable and profitable.

Senior Officers and Advisor

LUANNE JORDAN, President

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; The courage to change the things I can; And the wisdom to know the difference."

MISS FARGASON, Advisor

GENE SMITH, Vice-President

"Time will explain it all."

WANDA JETT, Business Manager

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder."

WAYNE BUCHANAN

"The valiant never taste of death but once."

"Seniors

DELWYN CALDWELL

"I love thee with the breath, smiles, tears, of all my life! and, If God choose, I shall but love thee better after death."

TOMMY CRAWFORD

"You ain't heard nothin' yet, folks."

at last!!"

TOMMY DUNAWAY

"It would be a great thing for this old world if truth and honesty were advertised instead of cigarettes and cosmetics."

JOHNNY GLENN

"One place in America where we don't have free speech is in a phone booth."

WAYNE GLENN

"Man is the measure of all things."

EMIL JORDAN

"Giving our best today is the recipe for a better tomorrow."

RAYMOND LONG

"First I thought I would, but then I thought I wouldn't, but I did."

MARVIN McVEY

"He was so good he would pour rosewater on a toad."

FRANCES MOORE

"Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself."

JOHNNY PATTERSON

"If you can't have some fun in living every single day, you'd just as well cash in your chips, 'cause your life will slip away."

MICKEY PATTERSON

"Some are weather-wise, others are otherwise."

GAYLORD RAILEY

"He that fights and runs away may live to fight another day."

FREDDIE SUGGS

"To whom do I speak today?"

CHARLES YOUNG

"Everyone can give pleasure in some way. One person may do it by coming into a classroom, but I get it by going out."

Last Will And Testament

I, WAYNE BUCHANAN, leave my scoring ability to Joe Crawford because I hear he needs it.
I, DELWYN CALDWELL, leave my ability to get in and out of trouble in Mr. Branch's history class to Regina Prestiage because I hear she needs it.
I, TOMMY CRAWFORD, leave to explore the outside world in search of a future.
I, TOMMY DUNAWAY, leave my ability to be engaged, go steady, and be a big flirt at the same time to Mike Causey, with hopes that he uses them well.
I, JOHNNY GLENN, leave Jimmy Rear and Kerby Griffin absolutely and positively nothing.
I, WAYNE GLENN, leave nothing, because it took all I had to get out.
I, WANDA JETT, leave my desk in Miss Fargason's English class to any "Alabama" fan who is daring enough to take it.
I, EMIL JORDAN, leave Miss Fargason's lunch reporting job to some lucky Junior.
I, LUANNE JORDAN, leave Sandra Cheaney a locker of her very own after sharing one with me for two years.
I, RAYMOND LONG, leave Johnny McVey my ball uniform so he will learn how to play basketball.
I, MARVIN McVEY, leave my ability to pop popcorn to Becky Branch.
I, FRANCES MOORE, leave the title of being "The Quietest Girl" in the Senior class to Cynthia Long.
I, JOHNNY PATTERSON, came to Mellow Valley in the eleventh grade so I don't think that I have been here long enough to leave anything.
I, MICKY PATTERSON, leave and regret that I could not leave sooner to go to Nashville.
I, GAYLORD RAILEY, leave all my good times to anyone who likes to have fun.
I, GENE SMITH, leave my basketball jersey to anyone who wants to play hard enough to get it.
I, FREDDIE SUGGS, leave Ricky Dale Waldrop my tobacco bench.
I, CHARLES YOUNG, leave my back seat in Miss Fargason's English class to Tommy Morris.

TO THE TEACHERS:

MISS WINDSOR, leave a spark plug wrench to help her when she has a flat tire.
MRS. McKAY, leave a years supply of airmail stamps.
MISS BURROUGHS, leave a private mechanic for all occassions.
MRS. THOMPSON, leave a years supply of coffee.
MRS. KENADY, leave a parking place closer to the school building.
MRS. MATTOX, leave a private waitress to carry her coffee.
MR. BARRETT, leave some refreshments for mid-morning.
MR. BROOKS, leave some wedding bells.
MRS. OWEN, leave a bottle of Super Rose Sweetner for her coffee.
MR. CALDWELL, leave some Christmas decorations for his door next year.
MRS. HERN, leave a bicycle to ride back and forth to class.
MISS FARGASON, leave a years supply of bananas.
MR. BRANCH, leave some Junior boys to wash his car.
MRS. HOLT, leave a foot warmer.
TEACHERS AIDE, leave a sink to wash the coffee cups in.
MR. McKAY, leave a detective to find his sutdy hall.

Finally, We do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Miss Myrtie W. Fargason.

As Seniors, we have a great feeling of accomplishment as we journey out into the world. Still, there lingers a sadness of leaving our dear old school, teachers, classmates, and friends. Some will be going off to college, some working, and others not certain. May God be with each of us as we depart down the long road that lies ahead.
